- Do you have a special birthday, anniversary, family reunion or other important event you want to celebrate on board? Let your Concierge know and he or she can make all the special arrangements, whether it's a private reception in your suite, a gathering in the lounge, and more
- Restaurant reservations. Just notify your Concierge of your interests, and he or she will be happy to make recommendations, and will call ahead to reserve your table
- Special excursions. Would you like a limo to take you for a special night in the city? Perhaps you'd like to look up long-lost relatives. Your Concierge is here to help!
- Extend your stay! Your Concierge can help modify your hotel reservations and flights if you decide to stay on
- Tickets to local concerts, exhibits, theater, sporting events, and more

Take advantage of this free, start-to-finish service by making your requests prior to your journey or during your journey. We are one of the only companies to offer this level of service! Call 1-888-982-6824 or email Concierge@vantagetravel.com to speak to a Concierge today, or simply log into My Portfolio up to two weeks prior to departure. During your journey, your onboard Destination Manager can assist with any special requests such as spa reservations, hotel reservations, and more.

DAY 5: Explore Derry on a walking tour

Today, you'll explore Derry (officially Londonderry), Northern Ireland's second largest city. Known for its 17th-century gated walls, Derry was revitalized in 2013 when it was named a U.K. City of Culture by the U.K. Government's Department for Digital, Culture, Media, and Sport. The city is recognized as a hub for artists and writers, and has been most recently immortalized in the Netflix comedy series Derry Girls. You'll learn about the city's history and culture during a walking tour of the Derry city walls. These Renaissance-era walls form a walkway around the inner city and offer a unique promenade to view the layout of the original town. The rest of your afternoon here is at leisure, with dinner on board.

DAY 10: Medieval Milford Haven awaits you today

Originally settled by Vikings in the mid-9th century and developed as a whaling town in the 17th century, Milford Haven's history is firmly linked to the sea. Today, cafés, boutiques, and other fun establishments line what was once a commercial quayside. Enjoy a walking tour of this quaint historic village, then enjoy some free time to explore on your own before returning to the ship. The remainder of the afternoon is at your leisure.

Included Feature:

- Half-day Milford Haven walking tour
- Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner
Ocean Odyssey >

DAY 11: Enjoy a guided tour of Bristol

The English city of Bristol has a long history, with archaeological finds indicating the presence of early humans in the area as far back as 300,000 years. Today this populous city, situated along the River Avon, is a bustling urban area with an eclectic mix of cultural experiences and attractions. Step ashore and head out on a guided tour of the city's most interesting landmarks, including the Hotwells hot springs. Return to the ship after your tour, and enjoy an afternoon at leisure and dinner on board.

DAY 13: Newlyn's maritime history is yours to uncover today

Today, you'll explore the Cornish seaside town of Newlyn on a guided walking tour. Situated a stone's throw from the larger town of Penzance, Newlyn is home to one of the largest fishing ports in the United Kingdom. From long liners and crabbers to beam trawlers and open-air boats, you'll see every type of fishing vessel at the town's scenic harbor. Aside from its bustling fish market, the town is also home to several art galleries, public gardens, and eateries.

Included Feature:

- Newlyn walking tour
Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner
Ocean Odyssey >

DAY 14: Step ashore in historic Plymouth today

The fortunes of sea, trade, and war shaped the Bronze Age port town of Plymouth. Its original harbor, Sutton Harbor, is known as The Barbican, owing to the fortified, medieval structure of its waterfront. This is the port from where Sir Francis Drake sailed, from where the Mayflower departed for the Americas, and where Britons danced in defiance of Hitler's Luftwaffe. Today, you'll enjoy a guided walking tour of this historic port full of narrow cobbled streets, Elizabethan-era warehouses, specialty shops, art galleries, and cafés. Your tour will also include a stop at Plymouth Gin Distillery. Opened in 1793, this is the oldest working distillery in England. You'll enjoy a tour of the production facilities, as well as a tasting of the gin produced onsite. You'll have the afternoon at leisure following your tour, with dinner on board tonight.

DAY 16: Disembark the Ocean Odyssey and make your way to London

The cruise portion of your itinerary will conclude in Portsmouth today. You'll disembark the Ocean Odyssey and transfer to your hotel in London, enjoying a scenic drive and a visit to Windsor Castle along the way. Built by William the Conqueror in the 11th century, Windsor is the world's oldest continuously occupied castle, serving as a royal residence since then. In fact, the current royal family, the House of Windsor, took their dynastic name from this beloved site.

After your tour, you'll proceed to London and check in to your hotel. Enjoy the remainder of the day at your leisure, with lunch and dinner on your own.

Included Feature:

- Windsor Castle visit
- Included meals: Breakfast
Kimpton Fitzroy London or similar

DAY 17: London's landmarks and UNESCO Sites

Following breakfast at your hotel, you'll set off on a half-day panoramic city tour of several notable London landmarks. Notable sites include Westminster Abbey, Big Ben, and Buckingham Palace. You'll also stop at the British Museum and enjoy an interesting visit there. You'll have the rest of the afternoon to spend at your leisure with lunch on your own. Tonight, join your fellow travelers for a Farewell Dinner at your hotel.

Included Feature:

- Half-day London city tour

Destination Enhancement: Customize your journey when you add an optional excursion.
