PHOTOGRAPHY HIGHLIGHTS

You've traveled a long way for this journey to Patagonia, and you'll encounter people, landscapes, and wildlife you won't want to forget. Here are some ideas and tips to help you make the most of your journey with incredible shots:

- Take your time to capture an image. Think like a photographer and slow down to compose your shot
- From Santiago into the heart of Torres del Paine National Park, you'll encounter some larger-than-life scenes and landmarks on this trip. This might create pressure to fit everything into one shot. Instead, try focusing on a distinctive feature rather than trying to incorporate everything into one frame
- Use your surroundings. Instead of edging out other tourists from your photos, utilize them to enhance the scene. Try tilting the camera at your target, including tourists and the real scene in the background or forefront, and the image is instantly more intriguing than a generic snapshot

- Pursue quirky composition — shooting off-center makes for a more artsy, unique shot

UNESCO & HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

- Learn about Chile's past and present during a walking tour of Santiago
- Walk the German-settled town of Puerto Varas, in Chile's Lake District
- Spend 2 full-days in Torres del Paine National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, as we explore this unique region distinct environments
- Enjoy a walking tour of Punta Arenas, a remote city on the edge of the Strait of Magellan
- Enjoy a full-day excursion to the colorful hills of UNESCO-listed Valparaíso and Viña Del Mar

WINE HIGHLIGHTS After days of exploration and adventure through Chile's wilderness, you'll relish kicking back with a fruity Carménère. Here's a sampling of what you'll savor:

- Enjoy a gourmet dinner with Chilean wine at Remota Patagonia Lodge. Remota's cuisine features fresh and creative locally grown fare
- During an optional tour in Santiago, you'll be able to visit a local winery and enjoy an onsite wine-pairing lunch

SOLO TRAVEL HIGHLIGHTS Your land adventure has been enhanced with special features catering to independent travelers, including:

- Solo-friendly social activities, including a Solo Connection mixer to get to know your fellow travelers

DAY 1: Fly overnight to Chile

Begin your Patagonian adventure with an overnight flight to Santiago de Chile. Or, depart earlier for your pre-trip extension to Easter Island.

DAY 2: Hop on a panoramic bus tour of Santiago and enjoy a Welcome Dinner

Welcome to Chile! If you purchased your airfare from Vantage, upon arrival a Vantage representative will meet you and arrange transfer to your centrally-located hotel.

Put the city in perspective this afternoon by hopping on a bus tour of Santiago. The capital of Chile since colonial times, Santiago is a vibrant metropolis boasting world-class culinary scene, excellent museums, and architectural charm. It's so alluring that nearly 40% of the country calls this city home.

We'll gather in the evening for a Welcome Dinner at the hotel.

Included Feature:

- Panoramic bus tour of Santiago
Included meals: Dinner
InterContinental Santiago or similar

DAY 3: Spend the day in Valparaíso and Viña Del Mar

We'll set off for a full-day tour of Valparaíso,

Chile's second-largest city. This romantic, freewheeling seaport was once home to Nobel Prize-winning poet Pablo Neruda. A UNESCO World Heritage Site renowned for its historic quarter and seductive 19th-century architecture, Valparaíso is also a natural amphitheater, with rows of rainbow-hued residences staggering into the hills. A walking tour will reveal the city's highlights and many hills. There are several working funiculars throughout the city, making it easier for residents to move about. We'll ride one of the funiculars for a stunning vantage point of the city!

After lunch on our own, we'll depart for the coastal city of Viña Del Mar, which means "Vineyard of the Sea." Renowned for its modern buildings and white sand beaches, this is a favorite weekend or summer retreat for locals. We'll take a scenic drive throughout, stopping to take pictures as we head back toward Santiago to rest for the night.

Included Feature:

- Full day tour of Valparaíso/Viña Del Mar
Included meals: Breakfast
InterContinental Santiago or similar

DAY 4: Fly to Puerto Montt, enjoy a rodeo show at Medialuna Arena, and savor a traditional Chilean meal

After a short flight to Puerto Montt, we'll transfer to Puerto Varas (our home for the night) and check into our hotel. We'll get acquainted with this adventurous outpost on a short walking tour, then head to Fundo Olguita.

At this local horse stud farm, we'll learn about the vital Chilean tradition of rodeo, where we'll mingle with the huasos, or cowboys. Our guide will inform us about the morphology of Chilean horses, their distinct characteristics, and their purpose on the farm.

We'll continue to the Medialuna Arena, where we'll see an exciting rodeo demonstration. As Chile's official national sport, Chileans take great pride in rodeo. The sport is deeply rooted in national traditions. Our guide will explain rodeo's basic rules as well as how the horses train for the sport. Enjoy a pisco sour and appetizer as you admire this spectacular demonstration. After the show, we'll get to meet the performers.

Dinner will take place at the adjacent cabana, where we'll relish distinct regional flavors such as roast beef, local vegetables, wine, and leche asada. As we enjoy our meal, listening to traditional Chilean music, dancers will perform the cueca and other typical dances.

Included Feature:

- Horse farm visit and traditional Chilean dinner

Cultural Discovery:

- Rodeo demonstration and meeting Chilean

huasos

Included meals: Breakfast & dinner
Radisson Puerto Varas or similar

DAY 5: Explore the rapids, rainforests, and volcanoes of Vicente Pérez Rosales National Park

We'll start the day with a trip to Museo Antonio Felmer. At this house from the 1800s, we'll delve into Chile's history of German immigration. Working farm implements, antique furniture, housewares, and textiles will shed light on the lives of these resilient 19th-century settlers.

After a scenic drive past dairy farms punctuating Lake Llanquihue's southern shores, we'll arrive at Chile's oldest national park — Vicente Pérez Rosales. We'll spend the day here, surrounded by temperate Valdivian rainforests and its three volcanoes. At this Chilean Lakes District hallmark, we'll head to Petrohué Rapids for an incredible nature walk. In these dense woodlands filled with orange myrtle, Chilean firebush, and hazel, we'll watch for hummingbirds and other wildlife.

Lunch will take place at a fishing lodge with panoramic views. After our meal, you have a variety of options for the afternoon. You can go with our guide to explore the nearby Osorno Volcano and the lovely Lake Llanquihue. Ask your Adventure Leader about fly-fishing and additional hiking opportunities in town. If you feel like relaxing, you can also stop by close shops, or simply enjoy the lodge's facilities and lake-view rooms.

Dinner will be hosted at a local family's home.

Included Feature:

- Full day tour in the Valdivian Forest

Cultural Discoveries:

- Guided visit to Museo Antonio Felmer
 - Dine at a local family's home
- Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner
Radisson Puerto Varas or similar

DAY 6: Uncover the charms of Puerto Varas with a day at leisure

Located on the curving shores of Chile's Lago Llanquihue and just north of Chiloé Island, you'll find the port city of Puerto Montt. Once an area that was blanketed by thick forest, the city was founded in 1853 by German colonists that had settled in the area as part of a government-sponsored colonization effort throughout the mid-to-late 19th century. Today this charming city serves as the entry point to southern Chile's colossal national parks and glacial lakes, and boasts spectacular views of the almost 8,700-ft. tall Osorno Volcano. The beauty and charm of Puerto Varas' Bavarian-style architecture and blooming, fragrant roses are highlighted by the clear blue lakes and snow-covered peaks that serve as a backdrop. You'll be able to explore this lovely village for yourself with a full day at leisure.

Destination Enhancement: Customize your journey when you add an optional excursion. Join a full-day nature excursion to Chiloé Island that includes a home-hosted curanto lunch.

Included meals: Breakfast & lunch
Radisson Puerto Varas or similar

DAY 7: Hike through Parque Philippi, enjoy paila marina for lunch, and fly to Punta Arenas

Our day will begin at a leisurely pace. Join our local guide for a morning hike in Parque Philippi, or simply relax and take in the views of Osorno Volcano from the hotel. We'll then head to Angelmó Mercado Típico to savor a traditional paila marina seafood stew lunch at the fish market. We'll have time to check out the artisanal shops for unique handmade souvenirs.

In the afternoon, we'll fly to Punta Arenas, near the southern tip of Chile. Founded as a punitive colony, Punta Arenas became a ships' way station prior to the construction of the Panama Canal. Settle into your centrally located hotel, which overlooks the Strait of Magellan.

The evening is at leisure. Take the opportunity to visit the nearby park and local markets.

Included Feature:

- Guided hike in Parque Philippi, with views of Osorno Volcano

Cultural Discovery:

- Visit Angelmó Mercado Típico for shopping and traditional lunch

Included meals: Breakfast & lunch
Hotel Cabo de Hornos or similar

DAY 8: Discover the history of Punta Arenas and visit Museo Regional de Magallanes

Today, you'll head out on a morning walking tour through Punta Arenas to become acquainted with the town's rugged history. Once the regular haunt of sailors, sealers, and Antarctic explorers, we'll admire the 19th-century mansions built by wool barons and Gold Rush profiteers. Our guide will explain how this location earned the status of "the center of the world." You'll also visit Museo Regional de Magallanes. Located inside an early 1800s house, this museum showcases original furniture and artefacts, poignantly depicting Punta Arenas' golden era before the construction of the Panama Canal.

Following your walking tour, you can look forward to an afternoon at leisure, then dinner in a local restaurant tonight.

Included Features:

- Walking tour of Punta Arenas

Cultural Discovery:

- Visit Museo Regional de Magallanes

Destination Enhancement: Customize your journey when you add an optional excursion.

Embark on an exploration of Patagonian history on a heritage tour that includes a life-size replica of Ferdinand Magellan's vessel. Learn more
Included meals: Breakfast & dinner
Hotel Cabo de Hornos or similar

DAY 9: Visit a Patagonian ranch, adventure amidst the Seno Última Esperanza, and enjoy a wine-paired dinner in Puerto Natales

After breakfast, we'll visit a historic Patagonian sheep ranch. At Estancia Consuelo, we'll learn about the rugged agrarian lifestyle in this slice of Chile. To further our cultural experience, we'll have a local specialty at the ranch: cordero a la parilla, or grilled lamb.

It's then off to the colorful fishing port of Puerto Natales. This is the portal to the Patagonian adventure mecca: Torres del Paine National Park. We'll check in to Remota Patagonia Lodge. Our spectacular, all-inclusive hotel in Puerto Natales is known for its award-winning sustainability model. The lodge is set on the shores of Seno Última Esperanza, or Last Hope Sound. This fjord-lined inlet was named in the 16th century by explorer Juan Ladrillero; he believed that crossing this channel was his last hope for reaching the Strait of Magellan.

We'll spend the rest of the day taking advantage of all the grounds offer. Enjoy the spa facilities, walk through the charming town of Puerto Natales, or bike among the scenic trails. We'll have complimentary drinks in the lounge before our gourmet dinner, paired with exquisite Chilean wine. Remota Patagonia Lodge's cuisine features fresh and creative fare, much of it grown right here on the premises.

Included Feature:

- Visit a Patagonian ranch

Cultural Discovery:

- Lunch at Estancia Consuelo
Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner
Remota: Patagonia Lodge or similar

DAY 10: Explore landscapes and wildlife inside Torres del Paine National Park's west side

Today, we'll explore one of the southern hemisphere's most spectacular sites, where the plains and lakes of the Patagonian steppe meet the soaring rock crags of the Andes. Torres del Paine National Park is world-renowned for its wildlife and jaw-dropping landscapes, like the three sky-high rock formations known as torres, or towers. Undoubtedly, this is where the park got its name.

We'll spend the day exploring Salto Grande, an emerald-green waterfall that spills into the Paine River. Enjoy an easy hike here, admiring expansive views of the jagged Cuernos del Paine. While in the park, you'll also enjoy a picnic lunch with this beautiful setting as a backdrop. It's then off for a nature walk along the glacial wonderland of Lake Grey. While exploring this Patagonian icefield, keep your camera ready. You may spot flamingos, condors, ostrich-like ñandues, pygmy owls, and southern parakeets. Even without fauna, the blue icebergs, snow-white peaks, and red-and-yellow wildflowers will make for a wonderfully vibrant, multicolored day.

Back at the hotel, we'll unwind over cocktails and dinner.

Included Features:

- Full-day tour of the west side of Torres del Paine
- Nature walk through Lake Grey for birdwatching and iceberg landscapes

Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner
Remota: Patagonia Lodge or similar

DAY 11: Trek Torres del Paine's Guanaco Valley on a photo safari and visit the striking Cascades del Paine

We return to Torres del Paine today. This time, we will focus on the east side, where we join a photo safari in search for rheas, condors, and the llama-like guanaco. We'll spend the morning walking in the Guanaco Valley before proceeding to the Cascades del Paine, a beautiful waterfall set in a wide valley. Here at the mirador, we'll find the best views of the park's famous towers. We'll regroup back at the hotel for cocktails and dinner this evening.

Included Features:

- Full day photo safari on the east side of Torres del Paine
- Visit Cascades del Paine and Torres del Paine
Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner
Remota: Patagonia Lodge or similar

DAY 12: A day at leisure in Puerto Natales

You'll have a full day at leisure in Puerto Natales today. Return to Torres Del Paine to explore even more of this stunning park at your own pace, visit the Puerto Natales History Museum to learn about the Indigenous history of the area, or simply take a stroll along the beautiful waterfront. When hunger strikes, pop into a local restaurant for a taste off traditional roast lamb and wash it down with a pint of regional beer. The day is yours to spend as you wish.

Destination Enhancement: Customize your journey when you add an optional excursion. Spend a full day cruising Patagonia's other-worldly glaciers and fjords, followed by a delicious barbecue lunch. Learn more
Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner
Remota: Patagonia Lodge or similar

DAY 13: Say adios to Patagonia and take a flight to back to Santiago

Our adventure changes course today as we leave Patagonia behind and board a flight back to the capital. After taking a scenic drive on the way to our hotel, the afternoon in Santiago will be at leisure. Use your time to explore more of this incredible city. If you haven't already, try regional specialties like empanadas, palta rellena, and ceviche. Ask your Adventure Leader for restaurant or sightseeing recommendations!

Included Feature:

- Scenic drive through Santiago
Included meals: Breakfast & lunch
InterContinental Santiago or similar
