

NORTHEASTERN TREASURES: CANADA & NEW ENGLAND

Your 9-night journey includes: 7-night small ship cruise to Halifax, Saint John (New Brunswick), Portland; 2 nights at a Deluxe hotel in Boston (1 pre- and 1 post-cruise)

Join Vantage Deluxe World Travel on a spectacular 9-night small ship cruise through Canada and New England's most scenic ports. Beginning and ending in Boston, this voyage is filled with cultural explorations through Halifax, Nova Scotia; Saint John, New Brunswick; and Portland, Maine.

Uncover iconic Revolutionary War sites in Boston, Lexington, and Concord, and follow in the footsteps of Paul Revere at the site of his famous midnight ride. In Halifax, you'll visit Fairview Lawn Cemetery and hear the compelling tale of the 121 victims of the RMS Titanic that are interred there. You'll also tour the city's picturesque Citadel, a star-shaped fortress constructed in 1856 to defend the city from invading forces. Portland's long history as an important maritime port comes to light during an enlightening tour. Your small ship cruise also allows time for you to explore more of these destinations at your leisure.

Throughout your small ship voyage, you'll enjoy the personalized service and luxury amenities found aboard the Vantage Deluxe World Travel's 5-star Ocean Explorer. Pamper yourself with a relaxing spa treatment, try your hand at hot rock cooking at the onboard specialty restaurant, pop into the fully-stocked library to borrow a bestseller, or simply sit back and unwind on the top-level observation deck while taking in the sweeping vistas. Your days on board are yours to spend as you wish.

DAY 7: Take in the beauty and history of Saint John, New Brunswick

Located on the Bay of Fundy, Saint John is the oldest incorporated city in the New Brunswick province of Canada. Established in the late 18th century, the city is known for its incredible Reversing Falls Rapids, a phenomenon caused when the tides from the bay collide with the Saint John River. Today, you'll witness this natural wonder for yourself when you set out on a guided tour of this charming city. You'll be able to step out onto the large rooftop deck and the Skywalk observation platform to get a first-hand look. Don't forget your camera!

Next, you'll visit Carleton Martello Tower, one of nine such towers still in existence in Canada. These towers were constructed during the War of 1812 to defend Canada from overland invasion by the U.S. Together with Fort Howe and Fort Dufferin, the Carleton Martello Tower served as the third link in the defense of Saint John. The tower remained in use by the Canadian military through several notable conflicts, including both World Wars, until it was decommissioned in 1944.

Your next stop will be Rockwood Park. Located in the heart of Saint John, this massive park spans over 2,000 acres. In addition to its unspoiled beauty, the park's ten lakes and more than fifty walking trails, make it a favorite spot for nature lovers and outdoor enthusiasts. Your tour will continue with a scenic drive through Saint John, with your knowledgeable guide pointing out historic places of interest, such as King's Square and the Loyalist Burial Ground.

At the conclusion of the tour, you'll return to the ship for lunch and an afternoon at leisure before sailing on to your next destination.

Included Feature:

- Half-day Saint John city tour
Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner
Ocean Explorer >

DAY 8: Full day Portland Tour

This morning, you'll call on the historic city of Portland, Maine. Known for its long history as a strategic New England shipping hub, the city brims with maritime culture, great restaurants, and classic architecture. You'll embark on a full-day scenic tour of the city and its surrounding area, including a stop at its famous lighthouse.

Later, enjoy lunch at a local restaurant before returning to your ship.

Included Feature:

- Full-day Portland tour

Cultural Discovery:

- Local lecture
Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner
Ocean Explorer >

DAY 9: Disembark the Ocean Explorer and explore America's revolutionary history

The cruise portion of your journey comes to an end in Gloucester today. Say goodbye to the Ocean Explorer and head to your centrally located Boston hotel. Along the way, you'll enjoy an exploration of America's revolutionary past.

Follow the trail of the nation's first patriots during a morning tour to Lexington and Concord and learn how these former farming communities played a pivotal role in the early days of the American Revolution. Visit Lexington Green, where Paul Revere made his midnight ride to warn the minutemen that the British were coming and where the "shot heard 'round the world" was fired. Stop at the Old North Bridge, and then get a glimpse of the region's literary past when you drive by the homes of Nathaniel Hawthorne, Louisa May Alcott, and Ralph Waldo Emerson. Following your tour, you'll check into your hotel and have the remainder of the day at your leisure.

Included Feature:

- Historical tour of Lexington and Concord
Included meals: Breakfast
The Westin Copley Place Boston or similar

DAY 10: Return home today

Following breakfast at the hotel, you will transfer to the airport and board your return flight home.

Included meals: Breakfast

Please Note: Ocean cruising is not the same experience as river cruising; as such, you may experience fluctuating tides and weather patterns that may involve some rocking of your vessel. Itineraries will include all activities as planned except in extreme cases that can't be controlled by your shipboard crew. Day-by-day itineraries are preliminary and therefore subject to change. If changes occur while on tour, you will be notified by your Cruise Director or regional expert.
