DAY 6: Step back in time at Cardiff Castle

Today, you'll explore Cardiff, the capital of Wales and its largest city. This bustling city hosts many events and attractions throughout the year. You'll enjoy a short walking tour of this enchanting city before heading to its main attraction — Cardiff Castle. This Victorian-Gothic castle is a fantasy come to life. Located on beautiful parklands at the heart of the city, this magical 2,000-year-old castle was once a Roman fort and a Norman stronghold. In the 19th century the castle was redesigned by artist and architect William Burges at the direction of John Crichton-Stuart, 3rd Marquess of Bute. The results are simply breathtaking, with opulent gilded interiors, elaborate wood carvings, intricate murals, and richly detailed stained glass throughout. You'll have time to explore this medieval dream for yourself before returning to the ship for lunch. The remainder of the day is at your leisure to further explore Cardiff on your own.

Included Feature:

- Cardiff walking tour & Cardiff Castle visit
- Destination Enhancement: Customize your journey when you add an optional excursion. Embark on a full-day excursion to Bath, England, including a visit to the 1st-century Roman baths and natural springs. Learn more

DAY 7: Medieval Milford Haven awaits you today

Originally settled by Vikings in the mid-9th century and developed as a whaling town in the 17th century, Milford Haven's history is firmly linked to the sea. Today, cafés, boutiques, and other fun establishments line what was once a commercial quayside. You'll enjoy a walking tour of this quaint historic village before heading to nearby St. David's Cathedral, situated in the tiny cathedral town of the same name. Founded in the 6th century by St. David, the patron saint of Wales, this is the final resting place of Edmund Tudor, the 1st Earl of Richmond and father of King Henry VII. Following your tour, you'll have some free time to explore on your own before returning to the ship. The remainder of the afternoon is at your leisure.

Included Feature:

- Milford Haven walking tour & St. David's Cathedral visit
- Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner
Ocean Odyssey >

DAY 8: Delve into Ireland's maritime history in Cork

Today's included tour will reveal the many charms and landmarks of the compact, 800-year-old city of Cork. Known as Ireland's maritime haven, Cork's seafaring history spans thousands of years. Serving as the main departure point for the millions of Irish citizen who emigrated to America in the 1800s, this was also the last port-of-call for the RMS Titanic. Throughout the tour, your knowledgeable guide will provide insightful commentary about Cobh's historic harbor, including interesting tidbits about the Titanic. At the end of your tour, you'll return to the ship for lunch and enjoy a leisurely afternoon to continue exploring on your own.

Included Feature:

- Panoramic tour of Cork & Titanic walk
- Destination Enhancement: Customize your journey when you add an optional excursion. Head to Blarney Castle and see the famous Blarney Stone, where lore holds that kissing this 600-year-old landmark will bestow you with the "gift of gab." Learn more
Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner
Ocean Odyssey >

DAY 9: Tour an iconic institution in Waterford

Located in the heart of Ireland's eastern region, Waterford is the country's oldest city and a treasure-trove of age-old artifacts, classic architecture, and delicious dining. Today's included excursion will take you to the House of Waterford Crystal.

Overlooking the historic Viking Triangle district, the renowned House of Waterford Crystal serves as the production factory for one of Ireland's most iconic brands. Your tour will showcase all stages in the creation of fine crystal — glass blowing, cutting, sculpting, and engraving. You'll engage with the onsite artists and watch as they create exquisite crystal pieces right before your eyes, before viewing the world's largest Waterford Crystal display.

Included Feature:

- Visit the House of Waterford Crystal
- Destination Enhancement: Customize your journey when you add an optional excursion. Board a private train to Kilkenny's Black Abbey and explore its namesake castle. Learn more

DAY 10: Discover the stunning county of Wicklow

Following breakfast on board, you'll venture to the southeastern coast of Ireland to explore County Wicklow. Here you will visit the spectacular 47-acre gardens of Powerscourt, laid out over a period of 150 years. Set against the backdrop of Sugarloaf Mountain, there are many hidden treasures to discover from the ornate Italian Gardens to the formal walks of the Rose and Kitchen Gardens. Next you'll visit Glendalough, one of Ireland's oldest Monastic complexes, founded by St. Kevin in the early 7th century. Set in a glacial valley between two idyllic lakes, the monastery's most prominent feature is the iconic High Tower where monks stored precious manuscripts and artifacts. After lunch at a local restaurant, you'll head to a sheepdog demonstration. Get a firsthand look at the intensive training process and meet the adorable Border Collies, Ireland's preferred sheepherding breed.

Included Feature:

- Glendalough, Wicklow & Powerscourt Garden visit

Cultural Discovery:

- Sheepdog demonstration
- Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner

DAY 11: A day of discovery in Dublin

Today, you'll set out for a special day discovering Dublin's main sights, including prestigious Trinity College. This is where you'll find Ireland's most precious medieval artifact, the Book of Kells. This illuminated manuscript of the four gospels dates back to approximately AD 800. The college also houses the 1916 Proclamation of the Irish Republic, also known as the Easter Proclamation; and the Brian Boru harp, Ireland's national symbol featured on the Guinness label. Next, you'll marvel at the lush greenery of the city's beloved Phoenix Park. These 1,750 acres of woodland, lakes, and historic buildings are home to Dublin's own herd of wild fallow deer. Your tour will conclude at Dublin Castle, where you'll have an opportunity to tour the inside. Constructed in the early 13th century on the site of a former Viking settlement, this castle served as the headquarters of English, and later British, administration in Ireland for many centuries. Following Ireland's independence in 1922, Dublin Castle was ceded to the new Irish government. Today it is a major government complex and a key attraction for visitors.

Included Features:

- Dublin city tour

Destination Enhancement: Customize your journey when you add an optional excursion. Head out of the city to the coastal town of Howth, where you'll embark on a cliffside nature walk with incredible views of the sea. Learn more
Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner
Ocean Odyssey >

DAY 12: Get a taste of Irish whiskey in Dublin

Today, you'll enjoy a very enticing, and quintessentially Irish, experience — an Irish whiskey tour. While the specific origins of whiskey are widely debated, it is believed that 11th-century Irish monks brought the technique of distilling perfumes back to Ireland following their travels to southern Europe. Around the 12th century, the Irish then modified this technique to obtain a drinkable spirit, making Irish whiskey one of the earliest distilled drinks in Europe. Dublin itself has a centuries-old history of whiskey production. On today's excursion, you'll tour a local distillery and learn about the process before enjoying a tasting of several types of whiskey for yourself.

Included Feature:

- Dublin whiskey tour

Cultural Discovery:

- Sample a variety of Irish whiskey
Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner
Ocean Odyssey >

DAY 13: Disembark the Ocean Odyssey in Belfast

Following breakfast on board, you'll disembark in Belfast, Ireland, and head to the airport to board your return flight home. Along the way, you'll enjoy a panoramic sightseeing tour of this historically significant city and pay a visit to the Titanic Belfast museum. If you've opted for a post-trip extension, you'll board your flight and transfer to Dublin today.

Included Feature:

- Belfast panoramic sightseeing & Titanic Belfast museum visit

Destination Enhancement: Customize your journey when you add an optional excursion. Get a firsthand look at the natural phenomenon that is Giant's Causeway, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and visit the Titanic Belfast museum. Learn more
Included meals: Breakfast
Grand Central Hotel Belfast or similar

DAY 14: Belfast at your leisure

Following breakfast at your hotel, you'll have a full day to explore Belfast at your leisure. Lunch and dinner today are on your own.

Included meals: Breakfast
Grand Central Hotel Belfast or similar

DAY 15: Return home today

Following breakfast at your hotel, you'll check out and transfer to the airport for your return flight home. Or, extend your discoveries with an optional post-trip extension in Dublin.

Included meals: Breakfast

Please note: Ocean-cruising is not the same experience as river cruising; as such, you may experience fluctuating tides and weather patterns that may involve some rocking of your vessel. Itineraries will include all activities as planned except in extreme cases that can't be controlled by your shipboard crew. Day-by-day itineraries are preliminary and therefore subject to change. If changes occur while on tour, you will be notified by your Cruise Director or regional expert.
